

These exquisite pieces are part of the unique and exceptional accessory selection available at Design Center West. 702.871.5657. ■

in the Spotlight

Design Center West

extensive fabric resources also include an exclusive line of washed chenilles and velvets.

Furniture lines carried by Design Center West exceed 200, and wall coverings from leading companies such as Imperial, Seabrook, Kravet, Eisenhart, Brewster and Brownstone Art are also available, along with other contract lines.

In addition to the multitude of product and assistance on hand at Design Center West, clients can also take advantage of the new Designer's Vision computer software at the showroom. This will help designers resource complete lines that space does not permit the center to stock in their showroom. Interior design services are also available upon request.

Design Center West's retail division features hard-to-find, unique and original accessory and artwork pieces. The merchandise in the accessory boutique ranges from home decor to gift items, and is available for purchase by the general public. Interior designers are also available.

It used to be taken for granted that local tradespeople would most likely have to go out of state to locate unique furniture and accessories...or the perfect fabric. Now, a trade resource showroom with boundless selection is accessible in the Las Vegas market.

Design Center West has become Las Vegas' design resource oasis. Serving the needs of interior designers and architects, the firm carries resources for residential, contract and hospitality design.

Featuring a broad scope of resources, ranging from model home level to high end, Design Center West houses a fine selection of fabric, wallpaper and furnishings. Over 16,000 fabric samples are located on-site, with access to many more. The center's main fabric lines is Kravet. Others include Fabricut, Waverly, Richard Bernard and Job. Design Center West's

"This showroom is designed for versatility," said owner Kassie Smith. "I've brought Design Center West to the trade, to introduce them to the newest resources on the market. Now, there's no need to run to the larger cities. They have Design Center West in Las Vegas."